A1

NORTH HANGER West Face
- written for boom pitches

- ① start w/ first two pitches of Seventh Rifle
- ② 5.6 loose up water drainage
- ③④ gain chimney on left side for $2\frac{1}{2}$ pitches
- ⑤ left turn up ramp to reach 5" crack
- ⑤⑥⑦ climb the continuous wide crack to bivy ledge
- ⑧ begin off left side of bivy ledge. 5.10 wet through a small roof w/ double crack, take right crack to a stance.
- ⑨ traverse right toward ^{huge} left facing dihedral climb thin crack just left of dihedral. you'll need 1 or 2 KB's and many RP's, 11+, belay in hde
- ⑩ sweetest .11 finger, hand crack ever, belay @ ledge on right.
- ⑪ thin crack directly above previous pitch, 12- to start thin and run out, begin trending left on small ledges to gain small right facing dihedral.
- ⑫ up dihedral, climb off huge triangular block through overlaps to gain a small ledge, traverse left to small dihedral, just right of huge right facing dihedral.

- 1) Step into huge right facing corner, wide crack protectable w/ RP's
- ⑭ ⑮ 5.10 hands through small roof, 5.7 scramble
- ⑯ lichen encrusted right facing dihedral. probably will go free to the guy w/ a wire brush.
- ⑰ → summit easy 5th and 4th class
- good luck.
